Nicknamed P.

Porker Jr was born on the 26th of January 1990 in Pinginhower. He was called Porker because he was overweight and some people wanted to butcher him for his meat. His parents were associated with banks in Pinginhower. His mother Piggy was an accountant who made a fair amount of money, and his father Piggest was a Business man.

At the Age of 2

They named him with a nappie on his head

Early in Porker Jr's childhood he had a lot of attention from his brothers Pig and Pog they loved to tickle him and play with him by making him walk down the hall. 1 year later he got into playing pigbonk (Pig Version of soccer) with his friends. He also really loved school.

At school Porker Jr was known as the smart pig, top of all of his classes, but being a nerd comes with conciseness in matter of fact, Howy the school bully was Porker Jr's friend Harry the wolfs brother, Howy and his gang of wolves always threatened him with guns but what he didn't know is that the guns were fake and didn't work. His favorite teacher was the technology teacher Mr Piggestbottom who taught electronics.

At 10 years old he started working for a local fruit stacking business, run by Porkychop a real intense pig who hated work unfinished and fires about 100 people a year. Firstly in Porker Jr staked pears in the pear house he worked along side with his brother Pig, then 1 year he upgraded to staking kiwifruit. Then at the age of 12 he moved out of his house that he was living in and moved in to a solid brick house in the country. "He was so brave to move out. I think it was a good idea too". Said his mother

When he moved his house came with a mud pool for rolling in, just across the road lived Harry the wolf. ^{from Pork Jr house} ^{Porker Jr's friend}

At the age of 14 Porker Jr got another job selling guns at the local gun store. But then one day a terrible accident took place Porker Jr had accidentally shot himself and was rushed to hospital for immediate treatment, and he suffered memory lost and all he remembered was the dark times of his past like being threatened with guns so he became, a ^{other} ^{he} ^{became a} international hitman killing several people including his brother Pig and Pog. Detectives discovered that the reason Porker Jr became a hitman because of a terrible past witch consequently involved Howy, and even thought Porker Jr did not know Howy was arrested for making him an international Hitman.

After a year on the run he had the A.S.T (Animal Swat Team) chasing him were ever he went, eventually he was stopped in a mall parking lot, then he gave up and even thought he had a choice to surrender and go to court for his crimes instead he shot himself committing suicide.

Then in 2008 on the eve of Porker Jr's 15 Birthday a memorial that the A.S.T allowed the family and friends of Porker Jr to throw. "It was horrible the death of my treasure Porker Jr". It was hosted in the pinginhower church to remember his loving memory of friends and family, then he was laid to rest in the cemetery. The death of Porker Jr rocked the town and being myself Porker Jr was never forgotten from my memory and the Porker Jr was never ever forgotten.!!
